Submitted to His Highness

The question which has to be decided in this reference is whether two lacs of rupees out of the civil list which used to be invested during the minority as a special investment for Her Highness should be invested in this year also.

The investment referred to was an arrangement intended to last only during the minority and must cease in this year — Please see extract from D.O. letter of 10th Nov 1897 marked D and D.O letter of 16th July 1900 marked E

If approved the completed will be asked not to invest the two lacs.
